

Pinstriping & Kustom Graphics

Editorial Guidelines:

Showcasing your work with PKG Magazine

Pinstriping & Kustom Graphics magazine is a bi-monthly Kustom Art & Lifestyle publication, featuring talented artists from all over the world. Giving the artist the spotlight to share their passions, skills and tips with others, PKG showcase the work of pinstrippers and old school lettering artists, lowbrow and tattooists, airbrush artists and body painters and many more. We are always looking for exciting new content, artists and kustom events to feature in PKG Magazine.

What to include:

Key information

Name/a.k.a:

Location:

Speciality (your area of expertise):

Number of years' experience in that field:

Social media links:

Website:

Your written biography / statement to accompany your imagery should be around 100 - 500 words.

Our readers love to find out:

- Projects you have worked on (commercial or personal)
- Who/what inspires you
- Which artists you are inspired by
- Your take on the Kustom scene
- How you started out
- Your favourite tools / equipment and why
- Your ambitions
- What you love about your art
- Plans for future projects
- Tips & Advice
- Be yourself, write in your own tone of voice
- Use our question sheet for additional prompts

We will edit and spell check your content accordingly. We are also happy to accept how-to's and step-by-steps.

Send your submission:

Follow our Image Submission Guides and email your full name with submission to (Example Subject Line: <your name> Submission):

Email: pandkgmagazine@gmail.com

File transfer: WeTransfer.com, weSendit.com, or Dropbox.com

What next:

Once we've received your submission, we'll acknowledge receipt and review your work. Please note that PKG Magazine is a bi-monthly publication, and it could be several months before your feature runs. We will be in touch to let you know if we are going to feature you, when we are able to run your feature and if we require any further information. Some artists may be contacted for an exclusive interview. If you are featured we will send you a complimentary digital copy of the issue you are featured in and a discount code of 50% for 5+ hard copies.

